CONTENTS OF THE COURSE
"TRANSPARENCY AND THE FIGHT AGAINST CORRUPTION"
2015

I. General Issues

1. The concept of Citizen.
2. The concept of Corruption.
3. The evolution of the subject of Anti-Corruption and Governance.
4. The concept of Societies of Trust.
5. Disciplinary Perspectives for the study of Corruption.

II. Legal and Moral Rules

6. Values that anti-corruption rules try to safeguard.
7. Actions usually not prohibited or under-regulated, but deserving ethical reproach.
8. Conducts criminalized in most countries.
9. International Treaties on Corruption.
10. Resolutions of International Bodies on Corruption.

III. The Study of Corruption

11. The Academic Field of the Fight against Corruption.
12. Areas especially vulnerable to Corruption.
13. Transparency and the Fight against Corruption in Specific Industries.
14. The Financing of Politics.
15. Conflicts of Interest.
16. Corruption at the Municipal level.

IV. Some Relevant Organizations

17. Transparency International.
18. Chile Transparente: The Chilean Chapter of Transparency International.
19. The Chilean Council for Transparency.
20. Intelligent Citizen (Ciudadano Inteligente).

V. Prevention, Control and Punishment of Corruption

21. Preventive Measures I: Public Career and others.
22. Preventive Measures II: Access to Public Information.
23. Control Measures I: Institutional Controls.
24. Control Measures II: Citizen Control.
25. Corruption and Investigative Journalism.
26. The Role of State Regulators in the Fight against Corruption.
27. Measures of Prosecution and Punishment of Corruption.

VI. The Situation in some Countries of Latin America

28. Argentina.
29. Brazil.
30. Mexico.
31. Peru.
32. Venezuela.

MOOC CHILE